MR. KEARN OUT

Announces the Withdrawal of His Name as a Candidate for Mayor.

HE HAS NO REASONS TO OFFER

General Surprise Expressed. The Situation More in the Dark Than Ever. The Talk on the Street Today.

It is so soon that I am done for. I wonder what I was begun for. —Epitaph in Cheltenham Churchyard.

Anyone on the street today may have seen groups of men on the corners discussing some topic in which much interest was evinced and in which they found something to amuse as well as to ponder. The general topic of conversation was the reported withdrawal of Mr. George H. Kearn from the mayoralty contest, and which is given to the press as follows:

NORTH ADAMS, MASS., Nov. 17, 1897. EDITOR TRANSCRIPT:—THE TRANSCRIPT is hereby authorized to state that I hereby withdraw my name as a candidate for mayor and I prefer to make no excuse for so doing and positively refuse to be interviewed.

GEORGE H. KEARN. This simple announcement is all that Mr. Kearn has to say. On that point he is very emphatic. A reporter might as well have been fishing in a bath tub as trying to get any reasons from Mr. Kearn today. But it was learned that the withdrawal was considered among a small coterie of friends last evening before being finally determined upon.

Mr. Kearn's withdrawal was a complete surprise. It has left the mayoralty situation more befogged than ever, apparently, and the one question being asked is: "Who will be the next candidate brought out?" There are no answers to that question today. A number of leading Republicans were seen by a TRANSCRIPT representative but none of them had any opinion to express. The general feeling was that had Mr. Kearn remained a candidate public sentiment would have gradually crystallized about him.

On the street there is unquestionably a feeling of a hope that this turn of affairs will lead Mayor Houghton to reconsider his repeated refusal to run. There is a marked hesitancy to mention new names till the strongest pressure has failed to bring Mr. Houghton out as a candidate, and this feeling is likely to delay the bringing out of another candidate. There has been talk today that H. T. Cady would now be a candidate. Mr. Cady has no such intentions. He says that he is entirely out of it. The name of James E. Hunter has been suggested today as the most logical candidate of the hour. But Mr. Hunter has given no intimation of being a candidate or that he has changed his mind about not wanting the office.

"Who next?" "What's up now?" "What's the matter with Kearn?" "Will we make it unanimous for Hanger?" "It's getting humorous." "Where are we at?" make up the sum and substance of most of the mayoralty conversation. No one seems to even venture a guess as to what the next turn may bring forth. Things are befogged, and Harry R. Hunter stands the lone candidate Colossus of the hour. But that there will be another candidate for mayor announced very soon, and probably the one who will be nominated, is the feeling of all who have expressed themselves.

Among the Merchants

Thanksgiving is the last day in the year to struggle with a poor carrying set. Good ones for reasonable cost at Dickinson's.

Merchants who advertise may be depended upon for the bargain cream; TRANSCRIPT advertisers for the cream of cream.

Sale of rich Persian stripe ribbons at 50c a yard at Tuttle & Bryant's.

Cape Cod's delectable, plumpiest cranberries at Braham's.

A universal food grocery bought at Bingham's & Darby's will lighten the Thanksgiving kitchen work a half. No two ways about it.

Baume & Mercier start a sale of rare ripe bargains Friday morning. Every price a magnet.

Claims our attention for a few days and doubtless you are already looking around for the best place to secure your supplies for the dinner.

I am in a position to furnish all the necessities and of the best quality from the toothpick up.

Celery will be abundant, direct from the best gardens in reach of us. Cranberries direct from the best grower in Massachusetts. Nuts and Spices from the far East. Fruits from the wide wide world wherever the best is found and the best tea and coffee producing countries in the old world are made to minister unto your comfort and pleasure.

WAR SCARE TODAY.

Austria Threatens to Bombard a Turkish Town. The Sultan Yields at Last Moment.

Vienna, Nov. 17.—The Turkish government, not having yielded to the demands of the government of Austria for a redress on an act of indignity offered to an Austrian merchant of Messina, Herr Brazza, the Austrian ambassador at Constantinople, Baron De Calice, will leave the Turkish capital and an Austrian warship will bombard the Port of Messina in Asia Minor tomorrow, if the demands of Austria are not complied with by noon on Thursday.

Austria demands that the Turkish government order a salute to the Austrian flag, that the Valt of Adana, in which district Messina is situated, be dismissed from his post and that the Mutosarifi, or local governor, of Messina be removed.

It was announced on Tuesday that the Porte had agreed to the demands of Austria, but as cabled to the Associated Press last night, it turned out to be premature and that the Sultan, buoyed up by the easy victory of the Turkish troops over those of Greece, during the recent war, will not, it is believed, yield until the last moment.

Brazza, who was the agent at Messina at the port of Adana, of the Austrian Lloyd steamship company, was expelled from Messina last month because he was suspected, rightly or wrongly, by the Turkish authorities of having intrigued against the government of the Sultan.

He appealed to the Austrian government. The latter made representations on the subject to the Porte and eventually Brazza was allowed to return to Messina.

A document filed with the district attorney gives notice that on Friday next the attorney for the accused will appear before Judge Bahr and demand that a time be set for the trial of the Williams case in the same manner as though there had been no trial and conviction for the murder of Blanche Lamont.

District Attorney Barnes takes the position that the Williams case cannot be forced to trial.

For Durant's Life. San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 17.—The attorney for Theodore Durant has made a new move. The condemned man now stands convicted for the murder of Blanche Lamont. No disposition has been made of the additional murder charge based on the murder of Minnie Williams.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

—The North Berkshire Medical association held a regular meeting Tuesday evening and had an interesting discussion as usual.

—The Pittsfield Athletic football team and the Drury high school team play a game on the fair grounds this afternoon.

—The Tuesday night institute was not so largely attended Tuesday evening as it was on previous evenings this season. The weather was bad. The lecture was the third in the series on "Heridity" by Dr. Peck.

Mrs. John Simonds was pleasantly surprised Tuesday afternoon at her home on North Eagle street by ladies of the W. U. T. U., 51 of whom were present. A pleasant time was had and refreshments were served. The ladies presented Mrs. Simonds with a purse in recognition of her service and sacrifices in behalf of the work in which they are all so deeply interested and repaired to their homes in the early evening feeling that the bonds of sympathy and fellowship had been materially strengthened by the gathering.

SALVATION ARMY CONGRESS.

Commander Tucker and His Wife Present at the Opening Exercises. Boston, Nov. 17.—Commander Booth Tucker, the national head of the Salvation Army, and Consul Booth-Tucker, his wife, came to Boston yesterday to take part in the annual congress of the Salvationists. The congress formally began at the People's temple last night, and it will last today and Thursday.

In the afternoon the commander of the Salvationists' hotel on Hanover street, which is a new branch of the army's philanthropic work in Boston. The beginning of the congress was the procession that formed outside the hotel, formerly the Pine Street church, and went to the People's temple.

The chief features of the characteristic enthusiastic meeting at the temple were Mr. and Mrs. Booth-Tucker. With them were Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. William J. C. Copens of the Boston commandery, Brigadier Alice Lewis of New York, Staff Captains Walder and Hunter of Boston and Hargraves of Brockton, and adjutants and ensigns from all over New England. Commander Tucker made an address descriptive of the far colonies of the Salvation Army. It was an appeal to the poor to leave the squalor and misery of the municipalities and go to the colonies, where the life is simple, honest and honorable. The commander was seconded in his appeal by Mrs. Tucker.

WEEKLY PAYMENT LAW STANDS. Hartford, Nov. 17.—Tuesday Judge Case of the court of common pleas handed down a decision in the case of Frederick W. Rice against the Lumber Manufacturing company of Thompsonville, which involves the constitutionality of the weekly payment law. The plaintiff brought suit on the ground that between May 30, 1896, and Aug. 16, 1896, the defendant did not pay its employees weekly, as required by the general statute of Connecticut, but paid twice a month. He sued to recover the forfeit prescribed by law, $50 for each violation, and claiming in the aggregate $300 for six forfeitures, half to himself and half to the state.

Attorney George B. Fowler, counsel for the company, demurred to the complaint on the grounds that the weekly payment law is unconstitutional and that "it is class legislation, pure and simple of the most flagrant kind," and further stating that the statute impairs the obligations of contract. Judge Case over-ruled the demurrer, sustaining the constitutionality of the law.

But, when the Austrian merchant attempted to land, the local minor officials with the knowledge of the Valt of Adana and the Mutosarifi of Messina, it is claimed, allowed Brazza to be so grossly maltreated that he was compelled to appeal to the Austrian consul for protection.

London, Nov. 17, 3 p. m.—A special dispatch from Vienna says that a telegram has been received there from Baron de Calice, the Austrian ambassador at Constantinople, saying the Sultan has declared his willingness to give Austria full satisfaction for the Messina incidents. If this be true the cause for war is past.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 17.—The attorney for Theodore Durant has made a new move. The condemned man now stands convicted for the murder of Blanche Lamont. No disposition has been made of the additional murder charge based on the murder of Minnie Williams.

FLAHERTY'S FOULS

Lost Him a Fierce Contest of Sixteen Rounds With Burns of Cohoes.

THE REFEREE'S CAUTION IGNORED.

Five Thousand Dollar Offer of Chicago Team.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 17.—The bout at the Manhattan Athletic club last night between Larry Burns of Cohoes and Martin Flaherty of Lowell, Mass., was witnessed by nearly 3000 people. The men weighed in in the afternoon, and each tipped the scales at 125 1/2 pounds. In the first round Flaherty opened with a hard one on the left eye, which almost closed that optic. The round was fast and furious. Flaherty played for Burns' eye and mouth during the contest, and Burns landed most of his blows on Flaherty's wind.

In the fourth round Referee Tighe cautioned Flaherty for fouling Burns with his elbow. The fighting was of the whirlwind variety in round six, and Burns showed the effects of the punishment received.

Cries of foul were sent up during round seven from the crowd when Flaherty again hit Burns on the eye with his elbow during the clinch. Both men fought like tigers until the 15th round, when Burns was sent to his knees with a heavy uppercut from Flaherty's right, which caught the Cohoes man under the ear. When Burns got up he went at Flaherty with a vengeance, and the going saved the Massachusetts boy from going out.

In the 16th round Referee Tighe stopped the bout and gave the decision to Burns on another foul by Flaherty.

STAGG'S OFFER REFUSED.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—The University of Wisconsin football team refused to be tempted by a $5000 guarantee for a second try with the defeated Chicago university football team. In refusing the offer by Stagg, Phil King, Wisconsin's coach, characterizes the proposition as unsportsmanlike and tending to professionalize. The decision is final, and Chicago has now no alternative but to accept a secondary place among the western university teams this year.

CLOSE AND EXCITING RACE.

Atlanta, Nov. 17.—The four-cornered race at the Coliseum last night between Eaton, Bald, Cooper and Loughhead was the closest and most exciting race of the season. Eaton won by a foul, and holds his title of king of the indoor track. His win was not an easy one, and in one heat the judges said that it was a dead heat between Eaton and Loughhead, but Loughhead was disqualified on account of a foul, and the heat was awarded to Eaton.

In the last race between Bald and Cooper the track record was smashed, as was the world's indoor competition record. The time was 1:37 4-5.

YALE PLAYERS REBUKED.

New Haven, Nov. 17.—At the close of the season of the Yale football team yesterday Head Coach Burtworth gathered the players of the varsity eleven about him, first the backs and later the line men, and for 10 minutes administered to each group a severe lecture. He took the men to task for not winning the Harvard game, which, he said, could have been won if the team had been done. He closed with an urgent plea to win the Princeton game of Saturday.

REFEREE AGREED UPON.

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—Representatives of Sharkey and Goddard have selected Bob McArthur, a well-known devotee of boxing and a prominent member of the Olympic club, to referee their contest next Thursday night.

The Kickerbocker club has matched Dal Hawkins and Ed Connelly to fight 20 rounds at 130 pounds on Dec. 18.

THERE WAS ROUGH PLAYING.

Newton, Mass., Nov. 17.—The Newton A. A. football team defeated the Boston college eleven Tuesday afternoon by a score of 18 to 0. The game was devoid of interest, although very rough playing characterized both teams.

THE GOVERNOR OBJECTED.

St. John's, N. F., Nov. 17.—The ministry, headed by Sir William Whiteaway, formally resigned office last evening. Before resigning Sir William wished to fill all vacancies in the civil service with his defeated supporters and their followers, but Sir Herbert Murray, governor of Newfoundland, refused to sanction the appointments and Sir William consented to authorize only acting appointees. The governor was impelled to this determination by the pledge of the incoming White cabinet to reduce the number of office holders. He refused, therefore to create any vested rights by agreeing to permanent appointments.

DIOCESAN CONVENTION.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 17.—The annual diocesan convention of the Protestant Episcopal church in New Hampshire opened Thursday in St. Andrew's church, this city, Bishop Smith presiding. The convention organized by choosing Horace A. Brown of Concord secretary for the forty-first consecutive term. The report of the standing committee was presented, including resolutions in honor of William L. Foster of this city, for years a member of the committee. Resolutions were introduced looking toward more stringent laws on the subject of marriage and divorce in the state.

ANOTHER BURGLARY

W. E. Penniman & Co.'s Hardware Store Entered Tuesday Night.

PANEL RIPPED FROM REAR DOOR

The Street Lights Were Out. But There Were Lights in the Store. Revolvers, Razors, Knives and Money Taken. Police at Work on Case.

There was another burglary in the city Tuesday night, when W. E. Penniman & Co.'s hardware store on Main street was entered and goods and money to the value of about $150 were taken.

The burglary was discovered this morning when the store was opened by James Sedgwick, a clerk, and was promptly reported to the police. Investigation showed that entrance was gained by ripping a lower panel from the rear door. One of the tools used was a pointed iron bar about 2 1/2 feet long which was taken from one of the windows in the alley under the Hoosac Savings Bank block, in which the store is located.

The burglars in the act of making their exit, the electric lights having failed at about 10 o'clock, and the town was in total darkness the remainder of the night. There were two lights in the store, one in the front part and another in the office in the rear end.

The money drawer was emptied of $1.50 in change and the show cases were stripped of nearly all the revolvers, razors and knives they contained. Nothing else was missed.

The job was doubtless the work of home talent and the police will spare no pains to bring the offenders to justice.

Mrs. Rexaville J. Canody.

After a long and painful illness Mrs. Rexaville J. Canody died this morning at 2:45 o'clock at her home, 1 Johnson street aged 74 years. She was born in Heath, her maiden name being Rexaville J. Fuller. On January 2, 1837, she was married to Randolph O. Canody who died 2 1/2 years ago. Mrs. Canody had lived in this city for many years and was esteemed by those who knew her as a kind-hearted neighbor and friend. She had been a member of the Baptist church for a long time and died strong in the christian faith.

Mrs. Canody leaves one daughter and three sons, Mrs. Mary J. Saunders, J. M., T. J. and E. E. Canody, all of this city.

The funeral will be attended from the house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. William Spencer officiating, and the interment will be in Hillside cemetery.

District Court.

The following cases were disposed of in court this morning:

John Conlon, vagrancy, 30 days in the house of correction.

Patrick Davenport, drunkenness, fined $5.

Jerry Herman, evading fare on Fitchburg railroad, continued until November 15.

Elmer Walker, a boy who has lived in Williamstown for some time and has no parents, was charged with vagrancy. His case was filed away and he is now in the care of Charles Sanford of Williamstown.

On Thursday of this week four of the Friendly associates, Miss Rhodes, Miss Motion, Miss Mansfield and Miss Crandall will entertain the girls of their group at St. John's parish house. The social will be from 7.30 to 9.30. Every member of these groups is invited to be present.

Coming in farce comedy will be found two of the cleverest people seen this season—Bert Haverly and Laura Bigger in Blaney's now famous, successful farce "A Railroad Ticket," with a strong supporting cast of 20 people.

HOW IT SPREADS.

People Are Talking All Over North Adams. This Report Comes From East Main Street.

How it spreads. "Good thing" down. Ever notice how good things are limited? Better the article, more imitations. Fortunately the people have a safeguard. Praise can't be imitated. And true praise takes root and spreads. Claim is one thing, proof another. Claim is what the manufacturer says, Proof is what the people say.

North Adams people say Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, Cure all kidney ills. Hundreds of citizens testify to this. Here is a case in point.

Mrs. Arnold, 165 East Main street says: "I received great benefit from Doan's Kidney Pills which I obtained at Burdette's & Darby's drug store. For quite a number of years I had great distress in my back accompanied by urinary trouble, particularly if I was on my feet. There is no describing the downright and tired, weary sensation which haunted me. Gradually the back-ache settled to a soreness and gnawing pain at the base of the spine. I could obtain nothing to allay it nor help urinary trouble until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. They not only relieved me of the trouble but they improved my general health. Mrs. Brown, a friend of mine, now residing in Saratoga, N. Y., at the same time I got my box, obtained one also for her husband. She writes me that they cured him of a serious kidney disorder. You are welcome to use my name as a reference."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents or mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

FIGHTING FOR O'NEIL.

His Lawyers Will File Motions for a New Trial Before Saturday.

A conference in regard to the sentence of John O'Neil, Jr., for the murder of Mrs. Hattie McCloud was held in the courthouse at Greenfield Tuesday, Judge Richardson presiding, District Attorney Hammond representing the prosecution and Messrs. Parkhurst, Beer & Dowlin, of North Adams, the prisoner. Judge Richardson stated that he had received official notice from Chief Justice Mason to the effect that Justices Sheldon and Tessenden would be at the court-house Saturday at 9 a. m. to hear a motion for fixing the date for imposing the sentence. At that time District Attorney Hammond will move that a date be fixed for the sentence.

C. J. Parkhurst of this city stated that prior to or on Saturday the defense would file motions for a new trial on two grounds; one is that the verdict rendered was against the evidence and not in accordance with the weight of evidence. It is probable that the other motion will be on the ground of newly discovered evidence. The defense also claims that these motions should take precedence over any motion for fixing a date for sentence.

District Attorney Hammond said that he would be ready to argue these motions on Saturday, but it is not certain that the defense will be prepared at that time. Interest in Franklin county is now thoroughly aroused in the fate of O'Neil, and the community will be greatly relieved by some early and just disposition of the case.

HEADMASTERS' CLUB.

Will Hold Its Tenth Meeting at the Wilson Friday and Saturday.

The 10th meeting of the Headmasters' club of Western Massachusetts will be held in this city Friday and Saturday. The club will make its headquarters at the Wilson, where dinner will be served at 6 o'clock, Friday evening. Prof. Henry Daniel Wild of the department of Latin at Williams college will address the club at 7.45 on "Latin Preparation." Dr. John Haskell Hewitt, professor of ancient languages at Williams, will speak at 8.45. The addresses may be followed by a discussion of the question "How do you prevent dishonesty in examinations?" The headmasters will visit the state normal school and Williams college Saturday morning. They will attend the championship football game between Williams and Dartmouth in the afternoon.

FROM FOOT TO KNEE

Ohio Woman Suffered Great Agony From a Terrible Sore—Her Story of the Cause, and Her Cure.

"For many years I was afflicted with a milk leg, and a few years ago it broke out in a sore and spread from my foot to my knee. I suffered great agony. It would burn and itch all the time and discharge a great deal. My health was good with the exception of this sore. I tried a great many kinds of salve, but some would irritate the sore so that I could hardly stand the pain. I could not go near the fire without suffering intensely. Someone sent me papers containing testimonials of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I told my husband I would like to try this medicine. He got me a bottle and I found it helped me. I kept on taking it until my limb was completely healed. I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough for the great benefit it has been to me. It cleanses the blood of all impurities and leaves it rich and pure." Mrs. ANNA E. BAKER, Whitteley, Ohio.

You can buy Hood's Sarsaparilla of all druggists. Be sure to get only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic. Price 25c.

NEW STATE.

Luther Stafford is at work for W. O. Ford.

A. J. McCulloch is building an addition to his horse barn.

Norman Greenleaf and wife visited at W. W. Burnett's last Sunday.

There is so much snow here on the mountain that there is not much news; nearly a foot of snow fell last Thursday and the night following, so the roads were almost impassable. The roads were broken out last Sunday.

The mumps are very prevalent in this place. Marcus Cain and Idella Ford are on the list now. Miss Ford came down with the mumps at the entertainment at the church last Tuesday, so there will be a number more that will have them.

There was an entertainment at the church November 9 to raise money to repair the church. Seven dollars and a half was realized.
